Director's Note

Directing "Bad Auditions...on Camera" has been an amazing opportunity to work with this resilient group of theater artists! The students are all amazingly invested in their performances and their ability to adapt to working on a virtual production shows their versatility as performers. This show had a lot of room for them to add their own flare and they have definitely seized the opportunity. One of the main benefits of this production was that it was written to be performed virtually. Shows and performers like these confirm that theater will continue to evolve and adapt no matter what is going on in the world. I strongly believe that through theater, people can learn communication skills that benefit them off the stage in school, work, and everyday life. I have been honored to work with everyone involved in this virtual production.

I am so thankful for the help from our boosters, Miss Germanos, and the parents of the students involved. All of our volunteers, students, and staff have worked so hard on this production. Our student leaders have been so helpful and supportive to the rest of the team and made this whole process easier.

-Atticus Cooper Boyd

Burgers and Bands for Suicide Prevention Our Designated Charity for fall, 2020

Severna Park's chapter of the National Thespian Society, Troupe #2476 is thrilled to be partnering this fall with the charitable group, Burgers and Bands for Suicide Prevention. Burgers and Bands hosts a yearly event built in and around our community to not only bring awareness and raise funds for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, but also to show people in our community that they are not alone.

Founded in 2016 by the Brennan and Bonk families, Burgers and Bands holds an 8- hour musical event each year with bands rotating on a 30-45 minute schedule; community services tables; and of course great food and community. Having been forced to cancel last year's event due to the Covid-19 pandemic, your contributions to this charity will allow this worthy group to continue its work to bring our community together around a cause that has affected far too many people, both young and old in Severna Park.
